

Anti-biased Workshop Training

A World of Difference Institute

Thursday, October 7th 6-8pm

To Register Click Here

We will discover how to...

- Work with children and families of different races, religions, abilities, sexual orientations, family structures, and more
- Address personal biases in a loving, caring environment
- Understand and recognize bias is the first step to creating an equitable environment for children and their families
- ADL's anti-bias training offers an emphasis on the importance of language and can help educators examine how personal identity & cultural awareness influences a person's perspectives & interactions
- We can offer strategies for challenging bias & championing change
