

Creating Partnerships with Families & Early Identity Formation

Sponsored by Santa Barbara County Education Office

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Family, Friend & Neighbor childcare providers
- Center-based or family childcare providers
- Infant/Toddler program administrators
- Infant care teachers working with children birth to 36 months

GOALS OF THE WORKSHOP

This workshop will help participants to:

- Describe the strong protective urges of adults and how they respond to children's needs
- Examine the three caregiver qualities that parents identify as most important: understanding, competency, and honesty
- Practice the skill of using the Acknowledge-Ask-Adapt process with families to develop stronger relationships
- Define culture and how it influences the young child's identity formation and sense of self
- Identify strategies to support the child's home culture in the childcare setting
