

“Father-Friendly” Principles Training

Through video, presentation, panel and small group discussion, training participants will be introduced to the Alameda County Fathers Corps (ACFC) and Father-Friendly Principles, and hear directly from fathers about their experiences, joys, and challenges as parents.

Studies show that children thrive when their fathers are actively, consistently, and positively involved in their lives. As service providers, we should do our best see, support, and serve fathers and father-figures. This training will provide insight into fathers' needs, strategies for effectively engaging fathers and father-figures, and useful tips for creating a father-friendly environments.

When:

August 24, 2024
10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Lunch provided!

Where:

1115 Atlantic Avenue
Alameda, CA 94501

Register today!

<https://bit.ly/4dgTDI5>

Learning Objectives:

Participants will:

- Review and discuss the Father-Friendly Principles
- Brainstorm ways to be a more father-friendly service provider
- Better understand the experiences of fathers and father-figures

Questions? Email us at qualitycounts@first5alameda.org.